

YOUNG PEOPLE FIRST

Safeguarding in Scouting

True / False Quiz - answers

Situation	True	False
Young people are often attention seeking when they disclose		√
I can report a concern confidentially	√
I need to collect facts and evidence before I can report a concern		√
Child abuse mainly occurs in less privileged families or communities		√
It is my duty to report concerns	√
The safeguarding team are too busy to deal with questions and suspicions		√
The majority of children are abused by someone they know	√
Reporting a welfare concern will result in the young person being removed immediately from their home		√
Young people in Scouting don't always feel safe to report concerns	√
If a young person does not disclose immediately, it cannot be that serious		√